PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY – in partnership with the Gap Year Association study abroad

INTL 199: Globalization Awareness and Community Development

COURSE SYLLABUS

CREDITS: 4 quarter-credits – Continuous Enrollment Course

Students who plan to use this course to fulfill specific curriculum areas should discuss transfer options and obtain written approval from a counselor or study abroad advisor at their own college/university PRIOR to enrollment in this course.

PREREQUISITES: There are NO prerequisites for this course.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

This course is field-based. The course instructor will be available via e-mail.

INSTRUCTOR OF RECORD:

PSU has approved the following Instructors of Record, one of whom will be assigned to you typically two+ weeks prior to the beginning of your program:

- Britt Basel, MS - brittbasel@ecothropic.com
- Dianna Hahn, MA – dianna.hahn@gmail.com
- Alexander Papouchis, MS - alexpapouchis@gmail.com
- Cam Sylvester, MA – ccamsylvester@gmail.com

Office: 503-206-7336
Web: https://gapyearassociation.org
Address: PO Box 17427, Portland, OR 97217

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course provides students with an opportunity to learn through work experience and volunteer service concurrent with assignments while on their academic study away program. It engages students in meaningful work/volunteer experiences while helping them gain an understanding of a particular issue of their choosing relevant to globalization and its impacts on local populations including international development initiatives.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

- Environment of Respect: Disagreement and diversity of opinions are encouraged. You will be challenged to think critically about the impact of cultural differences, which may include gender, race, the roles environment has in business and market development, socioeconomic status, physical and cognitive ability, sexuality and other forms of diversity. You are encouraged to ask difficult questions and engage in discussion and critical reflection. Please be respectful of others, listen, and try to understand differences.

- Experiential Learning: In this course, learning is an experiential process in which you have the opportunity to engage in and reflect on a variety of different experiences throughout the term. The richness of this class will depend on the questions, insights, and active participation that you bring.

- Personal Responsibility: You are expected to engage fully in this class and take action if you need help. Please communicate any concerns about assignments, deadlines, or classroom activities.

- Academic Integrity: Please adhere to university policies. Please take special note of policies regarding plagiarism and course withdrawal. It is expected that each student will prepare his or her own assignments and that any assignments submitted will be the sole work of the student. Academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information, will not be tolerated. The University’s Code of Student Conduct may be found at https://www.pdx.edu/dos/psu-student-code-conduct.
STUDENT OUTCOMES:
Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Examine differences and similarities between cultures.
- Expand knowledge and understanding of traditions and customs of different cultures by working or volunteering in an international setting.
- Analyze and summarize insights gained from cross cultural work/volunteer experiences.
- Improve cross-cultural communication and interpersonal skills through volunteer activities.
- Understand the impacts of globalization and the ways such impacts affect local populations and their day-to-day lives.
- Examine deeply the ins and outs of non-profits and international conservation efforts in the developing world.

CONTACT HOURS, EXCURSIONS, AND METHODS OF INSTRUCTION:
A total of 40 contact hours will be facilitated. These hours will come in the forms of:

- On-site instruction with local guides, group field trips, independent travel, and guest speakers.
- Excursions to markets and culturally significant sites
- Books, periodicals, and videos provided by on-site organization/tour operator.
- Volunteering with environmental conservation projects (ie, reforestation, invasive species removal, censusing of local fauna, etc.).
- Service-learning projects focusing on social service
- Service-learning projects with an environmental focus
- Introduction to, and volunteering on appropriate technological methods of the region.
- Interviews with local inhabitants.
- Optional: Students will use the Internet to access resources and evaluate information sources according to the external criteria, such as the author’s credentials, the timeliness of the information, the genre of the source, etc.

STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS:
REQUIRED HOURS: 40 contact hours as detailed above. The Gap Year Association will provide verification of hours.

A DAILY JOURNAL in English will be a descriptive study/journal of your semester. Use it to keep brief narratives of your daily experiences. It should contain notes on places visited, interviews, daily purchases, oral language activities, student observations of different and unique cultural traits, etc. Self-reflection is important and will be a significant part of your journal grade. Self-reflection will involve answering questions that force you to think critically about your experiences. When writing journals consider questions like:

- How is this experience different from my expectations?
- What challenges have I faced throughout this experience? How am I overcoming them?
- Explore differences, similarities to your home culture.
- What have been the most poignant learning experiences? How has that impacted my world-view?

REQUIRED READING – must read at least 1 book from the Recommended Reading list and demonstrate knowledge learned and/or perspectives expressed (with citations) in your FINAL REPORT.

FINAL REPORT of insights gained from this international service experience. Our expectation is that the papers you submit will reflect college-level writing. Your report will be 8-10 pages in length. Reports must be typed (double spaced) with a cover page that includes your name, the quarter (eg. fall 2021), the international program attended, and course number.

Submit a comprehensive analytical paper researching poverty indicators in a host-country/region in which you traveled. Explain how globalization impacts the level of poverty, either positively or negatively, and how other communities or organizations where you volunteered are alleviating poverty or could alleviate poverty in that region. What are actions you can take to alleviate poverty in other countries or regions beyond locations in which you consider yourself home?

Poverty indicators to consider could be GDP, HDI, education level, mortality rate (also maternal and infant), unemployment, average age, etc. An easy place to start your research is with the CIA World Facebook which has updated indicators for every country.

As you research, consider the following:
- How did you witness/experience poverty in the host country?
- How does poverty effect the social, political, cultural, and environmental reality?
- What is globalization and how does it affect local poverty?
- Who is responsible for global poverty alleviation?
- What is your responsibility, if any, to alleviate poverty in other countries?
- How much money and support do you think developed countries' governments or individuals should give to developing countries?

Final Report will be graded as follows:
- Research and description of poverty indicators in the host-country - 15%
- Description of how globalization impacts the level of poverty - 15%
- How organizations are alleviating poverty in the host-country - 20%
- Personal actions to alleviate poverty - 10%
- Clarity and organization of ideas - 20%
- Grammar and punctuation - 10%
- Ability to demonstrate knowledge from the required readings - 10%

DUE DATES, SUBMITTING JOURNAL AND FINAL REPORT:
Calendar/Schedule:
All course requirements must be submitted by:
- Fall Semester: January 20th
- Spring Semester: June 20th

Submitting Journals & Final Reports:
Please email your final report to the instructor, and post any necessary journals or supportive documents to:
The Gap Year Association
PSU Grading Instructor
PO Box 17427
Portland, OR 97217

 Purchase tracking for anything you post as some materials have gotten lost in the past.

COURSE EVALUATION CRITERIA:
Daily Journal (30%): Evaluation criteria include, but are not limited to, clearly presented observations, creative thought and appropriateness.

Final Report (70%); Evaluation criteria include, but are not limited to, insight, format, content appropriateness, organization skills, and analysis of topic.

Required Readings: This is a requirement for successful completion of this class and 10% of your paper grade depends on your referencing key lessons learned or examples. (Citations are required)

Presentation: Successful completion of the presentation is required for this course.

Required Hours: The Gap Year Association will provide verification of these hours.

Grading: This course is graded with letter grades; A - F. See more details about PSU's grading system here.
READING LIST:
Students must read and cite at minimum ONE book in the final assignment. The following books have been approved for this course and are listed by program region. Any other books not a part of this list must first be approved by the instructor.

All Regions:
A Path Appears: Transforming Lives; Creating Opportunity-Nicholas D. Kristof, Sheryl WuDunn Stories about people who are making the world a better place and a guide to the ways that we can do the same.

The Bottom Billion: Why the Poorest Countries are Failing and What Can Be Done About It: Paul Collier Paul Collier reveals that fifty failed states, home to the poorest one billion people on Earth, pose the central challenge of the developing world in the twenty-first century.

Banker to the Poor: Micro-Lending and the Battle against World Poverty: Muhammad Yunus Banker to the Poor is Muhammad Yunus's memoir of how he changed his life to help the world's poor by creating the micro lending economy and founding the Grameen Bank in Bangladesh.

Crossing Boundaries: A Traveler's Guide to World Peace: Aziz Abu Sarah Through sharing inspiring, funny, and surprising stories of the author's experiences around the world, this book is an exploration of how to heal our world from stereotypes, prejudice, and ignorance through travel.

How to Change the World: Social Entrepreneurs and the Power of New Ideas: David Bornstein Profiles of social entrepreneurs and how one person can make an astonishing difference in the world.

The White Man's Burden: William Easterly Easterly explores why international efforts to provide aid and economic development have not been successful.

The End of Poverty: Economic Possibilities for Our Time: Jeffery Sachs Using international statistics to show what really are the economic realities of the world, Sachs helps us understand what needs to be done to end poverty in our lifetimes

Central America:
The Beast: Oscar Martinez, Daniela Maria Ugaz, John Washington, and Francisco Goldman The Beast was researched and experienced by a Central American journalist who documented the perilous journeys of migrants as they attempt to enter the United States.

Open Veins of Latin America: Five Centuries of the Pillage of a Continent: Eduardo Galeano Rather than chronology, geography, or political successions, Eduardo Galeano has organized the various facets of Latin American history according to the patterns of five centuries of exploitation.

Cuba: Religion, Social Capital and Development : Adrian H. Hearn This ethnography by Hearn explores how the Cuban state and religious groups collaborate on community development projects within the island nation.

Capitalism, God and a Good Cigar: Cuba Enters the Twenty-first Century: Lydia Chavez A collection of 14 essays, this anthology describes what the changes implemented in Cuba since the 1990’s really look like for everyday Cubans. It also provides the reader with a greater understanding of Cuba’s ongoing transformation.

East Africa:
Beyond Good Intentions: A Journey into the Realities of International Aid: Tori Hogan The autobiography of a young American aid worker in Kenya, Uganda and Rwanda, searching for the truth about what does and does not work in international aid.

Dead Aid: Why Aid is not Working and How there is a better way for Africa: Dambisa Moyo Debunking the current model of international aid, Dambisa Moyo offers a new idea for financing the development of the world’s poorest countries.

India:
An Uncertain Glory: India and its Contradiction: Jean Drèze and Amartya Sen
Two of India's leading economists argue that the country's main problems lie in the lack of attention paid to the essential needs of the people, especially of the poor, and often of women.

Behind the Beautiful Forevers: Life, Death, and Hope in a Mumbai Undercity: Katherine Boo
The true story of families striving toward a better life in Annawadi, a makeshift settlement in the shadow of luxury hotels near the Mumbai airport.

South America:
Savages: Joe Kane
Savages is a firsthand account of a small band of Amazonian warriors and their battle to preserve their way of life.

Open Veins of Latin America: Five Centuries of the Pillage of a Continent: Eduardo Galeano
Rather than chronology, geography, or political successions, Eduardo Galeano has organized the various facets of Latin American history according to the patterns of five centuries of exploitation.

Gaviotas: A Village to Reinvent the World by Alan Weisman
A look at a real life “utopia” created in the 1960 in Colombia and how it is now one of the oldest example of sustainable living community.

South Pacific:
Kava in the Blood: A Personal & Political Memoir from the Heart of Fiji: Peter Thomson
The true story of hurricanes, haunted houses, kava consumption and coups.

Southeast Asia:
The Baobab and the Mango Tree: Africa, the Asian Tigers and the Developing World: Scott Thompson and Nicholas Thompson
A look at how some developing nations managed to develop much faster than their global neighbors.